

Rock your way to increased Sales

— Inline Sales lead the way in outsourced field sales —

Running a business that has a new product to promote on the open market, can be a hard slog, especially when there is the marketing and writing of any PR? So turning to a company to out source the sales operation could save time, money and hassle.

More and more businesses these days are turning to outsourcing companies to decrease their staffing costs, shorten the length of the average sales cycle and increase their revenue and profits. Turning to companies like London based Inline Sales which was developed by a group of sales professionals with a strong commitment and a passion about sales.

At Inline Sales, each client is individually addressed with solutions that fit their business requirements. Inline Sales is uniquely positioned to deliver expert strategies through proven processes and methodologies.

Their experience ranges across multiple markets including: Automotive, Banks, Insurance, FMCG, Oil & Gas, Leisure, IT, Public sector, Telecommunications, Pharmaceuticals, Service providers and the Media Industry, including radio, press and outdoor.

Inline Sales extensive background within each sector and its customers has helped them to cater their business practices to fast paced, high growth organisations.

With customers like Samsung, Cofrutos, Bosch and Safeclean, and branches in the UK, Germany and the USA, they really are a force to be reckoned with, ensuring they remain the largest supplier in their market.

They can supply a number of services from direct sales and lead generation to telemarketing, indirect sales and marketing and PR.

One of the latest products Inline Sales is working on, and causing huge anticipation and excitement just in time for Christmas, is the ultimate rocking experience in sound, games and movies. The X Rocker, brand new to the UK, is a revolutionary easy chair which allows the user to become immersed in whatever they're watching, playing, or listening to, by connecting up with a games console, MP3 player, or TV. Other products include the world's first video training and learning system, a new line of deliciously healthy fruit juices, anti wrinkle cream, and ultra thin advertising light panels.
